

“Whenever I need resources or advice in my work to improve how I view or serve the adult working learner, I turn to CAEL.”

Tracy Robinson, Director Innovative Academic Initiatives, The University of Memphis

“As the CEO of a workforce development board, I find tremendous value in CAEL’s thought-leadership, tools and network to help us grow our knowledge in how to best partner with postsecondary education. CAEL provides resources and best-practices that help us to be at the cutting-edge of inclusive, sustainable economic growth for all members of our community.”

*Jesse McCree
Chief Executive Officer, SCPa Works*

“I love the broad swath of institutions that are part of CAEL — so many types of institutions represented... CAEL has a large reach and voices coming from all these different sectors.”

*Adam Wagner,
Advisor, Prior Learning Assessment Specialist*

Recognizing that adult learners are the backbone of the U.S. economy, CAEL helps forge a clear, viable connection between education and career success, providing solutions that promote sustainable and equitable economic growth. CAEL opens doors to opportunity in collaboration with workforce and economic developers; postsecondary educators; employers and industry groups; foundations and other mission-aligned organizations. By engaging with these stakeholders, we foster a culture of innovative, lifelong learning that helps individuals and their communities thrive. A national membership organization established in 1974, CAEL is a part of Strada Collaborative, a mission-driven nonprofit. Learn more at cael.org and stradacollaborative.org.
