"Whenever I need resources or advice in my work to improve how I view or serve the adult working learner, I turn to CAEL."

Tracy Robinson, Director Innovative Academic Initiatives, The University of Memphis

"As the CEO of a workforce development board, I find tremendous value in CAEL's thought-leadership, tools and network to help us grow our knowledge in how to best partner with postsecondary education. CAEL provides resources and best-practices that help us to be at the cutting-edge of inclusive, sustainable economic growth for all members of our community."

Jesse McCree Chief Executive Officer, SCPa Works

"I love the broad swath of institutions that are part of CAEL — so many types of institutions represented... CAEL has a large reach and voices coming from all these different sectors."

Adam Wagner, Advisor, Prior Learning Assessment Specialist

Recognizing that adult learners are the backbone of the U.S. economy, CAEL helps forge a clear, viable connection between education and career success, providing solutions that promote sustainable and equitable economic growth. CAEL opens doors to opportunity in collaboration with workforce and economic developers; postsecondary educators; employers and industry groups; foundations and other mission-aligned organizations. By engaging with these stakeholders, we foster a culture of innovative, lifelong learning that helps individuals and their communities thrive. A national membership organization established in 1974, CAEL is a part of Strada Collaborative, a mission-driven nonprofit. Learn more at cael.org and stradacollaborative.org.
